

The below list has been provided by one of our current undergraduate students, as a helpful guide about what items new students bring with them.

Bedroom Stuff

Duvet

Sheets

Duvet covers and pillows

Pillows

Mattress protector - some people also bring mattress toppers

Bath towel

Alarm

Washing basket/bag

Coat hangers

Stationery etc.

Push-pins – you get a big notice board in your room, definitely an essential

A4 file paper notebooks

Pen drive/memory stick

Pens

Pencils

Highlighters

Backpack

White Tack or Blu Tack – for putting up posters

Scissors

Pen pot

Hole puncher

Stapler/staples

Post-it notes

Lever-arch folders

Paper/plastic wallets

Student planner/diary

Posters/room decorations

Laptop

Printer – there are printers in the library, but if you have your own it is quite handy

Extension leads – really useful, there are often not enough plugs

Door stop – it's really nice to peg your door open in Freshers' Week, it is a really great way to get to know the people on your corridor

Kitchen Stuff

- This really depends on how often you plan on eating in Hall. There are 3 meals a day provided everyday apart from Saturday (brunch only) and Sunday (dinner only).

In Garden Building, there are no ovens, only microwaves; in Wolfson and South Buildings, there are ovens. Some floors in Garden buy sandwich toasters.

Saucepan

Frying pan

Baking sheet

Bowls

Plates

Cutlery

Glasses

Mugs

Chopping board

Sharp knives

Wooden spoon

Mixing bowl

Tea towels

Tupperware – good for packed lunches, if you have a whole day of lectures

Washing liquid/powder for clothes

Clothes dryer – there are tumble dryers, they cost £1.40 but they are big

Clothes

Clothes

Swim/gym stuff – the gym is just down the road and membership is included in college fees

Sub fusc – you don't need to have got your gown etc yet, but it is a good idea to bring your suit and shirt

White T-shirt (that can be ruined) – Good for Freshers' Week for last minute fancy dress

Other

Bike – lots of people have bikes and I can recommend it as a brilliant way to get around Oxford. But Oxford is a tiny city, so you can walk everywhere if you want!

D-lock

Flexi-lock
